

1. The Bab of Persia (3:45)

Mulla Hussein, don't feel so low. The promised Qa'im is waiting. So search through land, aflame with your cause, and walk through the gates of Shiraz.

Who is this Youth so fair, standing alone in the market square? The Bab, the Bab, the Chosen of God, the Bab, young Bab of Persia.

Eighteen to find Him; the proofs were all shown. On foot and in vision they came. He taught them to teach throughout the land, to light the unquenchable flame.

And 20,000 gave their lives for Him to let the light of Baha shine in. The Bab, the Bab, the Chosen of God, the Bab, young Bab of Persia.

2. I Am, I Am (the Promised One) (3:48)

I am, I am, I am the Promised One! I am the One, Whose name you have for a thousand years invoked, at Whose mention you have risen, Whose advent you have longed to witness, and the hour of Whose Revelation you have prayed God to hasten.

I am the Primal Point from which have been generated all created things... I am the Countenance of God Whose splendour can never be obscured, the light of God, whose radiance can never fade... All the keys of heaven God hath chosen to place on My right hand... I am one of the sustaining pillars of the Primal Word of God.

—The Bab— from God Passes By, p. 21 and The World Order of Baha'u'llah, p. 126

3. Ye Are the Stars (3:07)

Ye are the stars in the heaven of understanding, the breezes that stirreth at the break of day, the soft-flowing waters upon which must depend the very life of all men...

Ye are the first among men to be recreated by His Spirit, the first to adore and bow the knee before Him, the first to circle round His throne of glory. —Bahá'u'lláh— from Gleanings, p. 65

Ye are the bearers of the name of God in this Day. You have been chosen as the repositories of His mystery. It behooves each one of you to manifest the attributes of God... The very members of your body must bear witness to the loftiness of your purpose, the integrity of your life, the reality of your faith...

—The Bab— from The Dawn Breakers, pp. 92-93

4. Morning Sun (3:29)

I have seen the morning sun rising in the eastern sky. He sheds His light on everyone. It grows warmer as the day goes by.

Sing ye Bird of the Kingdom. You bring the Word of the season. This is the spring of your heart. Dwell not on things that depart.

Sunlight kisses mother earth, and like a fairy tale, she springs to life. Now I know what eyes are worth. I can see the Glory rising from the strife.

Sing ye Bird of the Kingdom. You bring the Word of the season. This is the spring of your heart. Dwell not on things that depart.

5. (Amazing) Rain of Grace (3:59)

Amazing grace, how sweet the sound that saved a wretch like me. I once was lost, but now am found; I was blind but now I see...

The rain is falling. Oh, the rain of grace is falling. And I stand in the rain, with the palm of my hand.

Oh, that I had a cup... a pail... a tub... a stream... For the rain is falling. Oh, the rain of grace is falling.

And I look to the sky, and feel the rain in my eyes. For the rain is falling. Oh, the rain of grace is falling.

The whole duty of man in this Day is to attain that share of the flood of grace which God poureth forth for him. Let none, therefore, consider the largeness or smallness of the receptacle.

The portion of some might lie in the palm of a man's hand, the portion of others might fill a cup, and of others, even a gallon-measure.

—Bahá'u'lláh— from Gleanings, pp. 7-8

6. Hummingbird (4:35)

O Hummingbird, mankind was waiting for You to come flying along. Heavenly Songbird, we were so wrong. We've harmed you, O Hummingbird.

Lend us your wings. Let us soar in the atmosphere of Abha. Lift us up to the heaven of holiness, O Source of our being.

O Hummingbird! Hummingbird, Hummingbird, don't fly away. Hummingbird, Hummingbird, don't fly away.

In you I've found a fragrance. I'll love you till I die. I just love you, love you, love you; I don't even know the reason why.

The sweetness of your nectar has drawn me like a fly. I just love you, love you, love you; I don't even know the reason why.

Alas, here comes the Gardener. He's come to till the flowers. The drought of understanding, wisdom, peace and love is ours.

Hummingbird, Hummingbird, don't fly away. Hummingbird, Hummingbird, don't fly away. Don't fly away.

7. Queen of Carmel (3:56)

Standing on the mountain, looking across the bay. The queen of Carmel reigns; she reigns majestically. Cry out, O Zion. Cry out to your Lord. Cry out, O Zion.

Circle round in adoration, circle round your Lord. Robed in white and crowned in gold, she stands for unity. God will sail His Ark on thee, as mentioned in the Book of Names.

Cry out, O Zion. Cry out to your Lord. Cry out, O Zion.

8. Three Wives of Abraham (3:24)

From the three wives of Abraham the Prophets came to teach us God's most glorious Name. Zoroaster and Krishna, they too taught the Word, and again the voice of God was heard.

Buddha's light rekindled the flame; Moses and the burning bush, he did the same. Then came Jesus with the dove to teach us the Word, and the Word was Love.

Through Muhammad's prophet cycle it was sealed. A new world order has been revealed through the Bab, the Gate, and Baha'u'llah, the Pen. It shall be on earth as it is in heaven.

9. Sing Out O Zion (3:16)

Rise up to shine; your light has come. God's glory shines upon you. Though darkness covers all the earth, the nations walk by your light.

Sing out, O Zion, rejoice God's people. The Lord has come of free us. The Lord has come to free us.

Look up and see your overseers; they gather for your service. They'll build your walls and bring you wealth. God's judgment is forgiveness.

Sing out, O Zion, rejoice God's people. The Lord has come of free us. The Lord has come to free us.

10. Tablet of Carmel (3:54)

Call out to Zion, O Carmel, and announce the joyful tidings: He that was hidden from mortal eyes is come! His all-conquering sovereignty is manifest; His all-encompassing splendor is revealed.

Beware lest ye hesitate or halt. Hasten forth and circumambulate the City of God that hath descended from heaven, the celestial Kaaba round which have circled in adoration the favoured of God, the pure of heart, and the company of the most exalted angels.

Oh, how I long to announce unto every spot on the surface of the earth, and to carry to each one of its cities, the glad-tidings of this Revelation... Ere long will God sail His Ark upon thee, and will manifest the people of Baha who have been mentioned in the Book of Names.

—Bahá'u'lláh— from Gleanings, p. 16

11. True Brethren (4:05)

Become as true brethren in the one and indivisible religion of God, free from distinction, for verily God desireth that your hearts become mirrors unto your brethren in the Faith, so that ye find yourselves reflected in them and they in you. This is the true Path of God, the Almighty, and He is indeed watchful over your actions.

—The Bab— from Selections from Writings of the Bab, p. 56

12. Intone, O My Servant (4:41)

Intone, O My servant, the verses of God that have been received by thee, as intoned by them who have drawn nigh unto Him, that the sweetness of thy melody may kindle thine own soul, and attract the hearts of all men.

Whoso reciteth, in the privacy of his chamber, the verses revealed by God, the scattering angels of the Almighty shall scatter abroad the fragrance of the words uttered by his mouth, and shall cause the heart of every righteous man to throb.

—Bahá'u'lláh— from Baha'i Prayers, p. v

13. One Planet, One People, Please (3:49)

Strong is the light of unity. It can light the world for you and for me. So why don't we reach out and be one planet, one people, please.

Storm clouds are coming. I can see it all. The old world is dying; it must tumble and fall.

And from every nation I can hear the call: One planet, one people, please.

There's never been a people on the earth like us Who stand to gain and prosper or to lose so much.

If we just reach out so our hearts can touch one planet, one people, please. One planet, one people, please. Please let it be.

"I cherish in my heart the desire of beholding the entire human race as one soul and one body."

—Bahá'u'lláh— from Gleanings, p. 65

14. Love Can Build a Bridge (4:30)

Love can build a bridge between your heart and mine. Love can build a bridge. Don't you think it's time? Don't you think it's time?

When we stand together, it's our finest hour. We can do anything, anything. Keep believing in the power of..

Love can build a bridge between your heart and mine. Love can build a bridge. Don't you think it's time? Don't you think it's time?

15. These Are the Days

(4:24)

Assuredly we are today living in the Days of God. These are the glorious days on the like of which the sun hath never risen in the past.

These are the days which the people in bygone times eagerly expected. What hath then befallen you that ye are fast asleep?

These are the days wherein God hath caused the Day Star of Truth to shine resplendent. What hath then caused you to keep your silence?

These are the appointed days which ye have been yearningly awaiting in the past—the days of the advent of divine justice.

Render ye thanks unto God, O ye concourse of believers. —The Bab— from Selections from Writings of the Bab, p. 161
